BERRY BIOGRAPHY.

Failure to receive valuable papers which had been compelled a postponement of the installment of the biography of Gen. Hiram G. Berry which E. K. Gould, esq., is preparing for this paper. The biography is well in hand, in fact about completed, but the papers referred to are needed for verification of certain portions of the biography.
We have examined the advance sheets of the work, and can promise our readers a rich treat. Mr. Gould has taken hold of the work with enthusiasm, and the connections of Gen. Berry are all doing their best to make the biography complete and valuable.
Next week we will be able to announce when the first installment will be published.

F. Marion Crawford says, on page 45, in his latest story, "Love in Idleness," in chronicling the arrival of Bar Harbor, and his reception by the heroine: "She had ordered him into the library in a very peremptory and high-and-mighty fashion to wait for her, regardless of the fact that he had traveled twenty-four hours, and had acquired the prerogative right of the traveler to sup and water before all else. No doubt, however, he was quite presentable, since the accommodations of modern railways had made it possible to come in clean, or comparatively so, from a longish run." And he had traveled by the Maine Central Railroad.

What Bread Do You Eat?

My vastly increased sales on this particular Home-made Bread has naturally raised up imitations. But my bread will continue to be in the Lead. Try a Loaf and you will be satisfied with no other. See that my printed label is around every loaf. My ARLINGTON WHEAT BREAD is also ahead of any of its competitors.

MEN AND WOMEN.

Having Special Reference to People Well Known Hereabouts.

Harry E. Baker is visiting at his home in Hammon, N. J., for a few days. A. P. St. Clair is confined to his home on North Main street with an attack of "argitis." F. B. T. Young and daughter Annie went to Cambridge, Mass., last week for a visit of several weeks with Mrs. Charles J. Marston. Harvey F. Addison, of Spear, May & Stover, returned Tuesday from a book-buying trip to New York.
Many Rockland readers of THE C. G. remember Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Fox, who were located here a year or so ago. They are now in Amherst, N. S.—Mrs. E. L. Perkins is dangerously sick with a carbuncle on her neck. Rev. Mr. Pratt, the evangelist who conducted meetings in this city several years ago, is now on the Pacific coast. Mr. Bird, the singer, is not with him. Mrs. M. Loney and daughter from Boston, who have been the guests of Mrs. C. A. Young, Grace street, have gone to St. George to visit relatives.
Mayor Knight and wife have been in Boston for a few days. Fred Black, who left here when but a child, some eleven years ago, and has been residing in Worcester, Mass., is now making his home with his father, G. L. Black, this city. R. A. Somers of Portland is clerking for W. F. Norcross. Walter Farnie, who has been employed there for some time, is taking a course in Rockland Commercial College—Engineer F. B. Shaw returns to his duties in Boston this week. Capt. Mark Ingraham and wife have returned from a very pleasant trip to Whitefield where they were guests of their son, Mr. Albert Ingraham.
Mrs. Lottie E. Chase has returned from a visit to Augusta. She attended the Woman's Suffrage Convention while there. Everett Spear has returned from Detroit, where he has been visiting his brother—Mrs. H. G. Bird has returned from a visit to Boston—Miss Nina Farrington, book-keeper for the Mowry & Payson Co., is at her home in Warren on account of sickness—Miss Gertrude Kidder, of Camden, is visiting friends in East Boston—Dr. R. B. Miller has returned from Boston greatly improved in health, and has resumed business.
Mr. James Fernald has been quite sick but is slowly convalescing and hopes to soon be able to attend to his road business.

IN POLITICS.

The ferment over federal appointments does not seem to subside much with the appointment of Capt. Munroe and J. E. Moore to the two coveted positions. Capt. Hewitt continues his campaign against the appointment and promises amusement to the crowd. The contest is now over the appointment of deputy collector of this port. The candidates are Capt. Jere Hooper, J. E. Sherman, H. K. Kallach and A. J. Tolman. They are all prominent Democrats and well equipped for the position, but it is the impression that Capt. Hooper and Mr. Kallach have rather the inside track. Capt. Hooper has a strong endorsement by his position of appointment being signed by 54 of the reading Democrats of the city. Mr. Kallach also has a strong following, and the race between him and Capt. Hooper promises to be a close one. Capt. Hooper is somewhat over the limit of age, which may perhaps interfere somewhat with his chances, although the question has never been raised in similar appointments.

REVIVAL MEETINGS.

Considerable Interest Being Manifested—Sunday's Services in the Opera House.

The revival meetings, under the lead of Evangelist Whittier and his gospel singer Mr. Goodfellow, continue this week, and a considerable interest is manifest and a number of conversions reported. Sunday's services were held in Farwell Opera House, which was fairly well filled, morning and evening. The singing was led by Mr. Goodfellow with Mrs. F. M. Shaw accompanist. In the morning a chorus of 25 voices, made up of volunteers from the several church societies and about a dozen members of the Philharmonic assisted.
The revival meetings continue this week, at the Congregational Church, Thursday, and the Methodist Church the rest of the week.
Neighborhood prayer meetings will be held Thursday to a m., all over the city, and all to the people, Christians especially, are invited to attend the meetings in their neighborhood. The places and leaders are as follows: Rev. W. O. Holman's, Ingraham Hill, leader, Rev. C. W. Bradley; C. E. Goulding's, 54 Pacific street, leader, Dr. L. F. Lachelle; R. C. Hall's, 166 So. Main street, leader, L. S. Robinson; J. T. Lohr's, 32 Lisle street, leader, Sect. Cotton of V. M. C. A.; J. R. Baker's, 10 Franklin street, leader, Rev. Mrs. K. Taylor; J. B. Loring's, 22 Myrtle street, leader, Miss Clara Loring; Nathaniel Ward's, 25 Winter street, leader, Dea. Frank S. Kallach; Baptist Bethel, Sea street, R. C. Calderwood; Dea. A. J. Shaw's, 34 High street, leader, Rev. J. H. Parshley; Howard Brown's, 18 Shaw Avenue, leader, Rev. J. R. Baker; Aramanda Daggett's, 67 Rankin street, leader, Mrs. L. N. Littlehale; Wm. Brewster's, Jefferson street, leader, J. Fred Hall; Free Baptist meeting, Bay View Place, leader, Rev. John Pettigall.
At all these meetings, except Dea. A. J. Shaw's, "Gospel Hymns No. 5" will be used, and friends are urged to bring the book with them. The hymns in Mr. Parshley will use the "Pentecostal Hymns." Any one having a copy please bring it. The meeting will continue one hour, subject to conditions in each case.

WASHINGTON.

One of the oldest men in town is Thomas Overton, who was born in Walhobury, Mass., in the year 1808 and is now 87 years of age. He married Hannah Winkapaw of this town who died leaving him three sons and one daughter. Later he married Mrs. Caroline Taylor, of Walhobury. His place of residence is still on the old farm where he passed the best years of his life.
I. N. Overlook and son Chester are both sick with typhoid. They are attended by Dr. Pierpont—Mrs. N. B. Due and son Charles were in Keweenaw, Saturday, Linwood Luce, eqy, of Branchville, visited his grandfather Capt. Edw. Sukeforth Sunday—G. A. Jones is sick with a bad cold—Elder J. P. Halliwell is holding a series of meetings at the Branchville schoolhouse. Several have risen for prayer—Mrs. G. H. Luce is sick with typhoid—A little daughter of Mrs. Alexander Jackson is sick.

Miss Georgie Overlook of Walhobury has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Henry Sukeforth at Sticksy's Corner. Elder Daggett is making searching inquiries for his husband. When last heard of he was going in the direction of Washington Mills after a fox—Walter Morse has been home from Augusta the past week. While here he purchased a line yoke of oxen for his son Virgil—Fred Sukeforth is at work in Union for Miller & Feyer chopping in the woods.

NORTH WASHINGTON.—Miss Susie Turner went to Appleton Sunday to work for Jefferson Fish—Rev. John Howard again commenced his meetings at the Light school house Saturday night. The house was crowded, and a deep religious interest is being manifested. We hope Mr. Howard has come to stay—Cyrus Jones purchased a nice yoke of oxen of parties in Walhobury last week. He also sold a cow to So. Hope parties—Silas Sherman has been employed by Mrs. Rose Savage to do her lumbering and other business this winter—Miss Lillian Prescott closed a very successful term of school at So. Liberty, Friday. The scholars all speak of her in the highest terms as a most excellent teacher—Last Tuesday and Wednesday especially the latter were tough days. The mercury Wednesday morning registered 22 below zero. The snow drifted badly and No. Washington kept shaly.

Quite a number from this place attended the anniversary of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor at Keweenaw Sunday evening. A large crowd of people was in attendance and a most splendid meeting was reported. Great credit is due the president of this society for its present large list of members and great good is being done. Success to the noble society—School finished here Friday and although 'twas a stormy day a pleasant time was enjoyed. The scholars recited a number of nice pieces and all speak highly of their teachers. It has been as far as we can learn, a very successful term. There have been two terms this season both taught by W. E. Overlook of Keweenaw.

BRILLIANT WEDDING.

Marriage of Two of Thomaston's Best Known Young People in Baptist Church.

The Baptist Church Thomaston, was the scene, Wednesday evening, of a brilliant wedding, the contracting parties being Miss Edith Mould, daughter of Capt. and Mrs. W. J. Gilchrist, and Thomas B. Brown, both of Thomaston.
At eight o'clock the bridal party entered the church to the strains of the wedding march from "Lohengrin," Miss Flora Putnam presiding at the organ in her accustomed masterly manner.
The bride was attired in a beautiful dress of pale lemon satin and gauze over lemon tulle, with train, trimmings of white lace. Miss Edith Mould, as bride-maid wore a dress of heliotrope lalandown, trimmed with white lace. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Howard Tilden.
After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Brown, on Main street, where they received the congratulations and good wishes of a host of friends.
Mrs. Brown is one of Thomaston's most estimable young ladies, while Mr. Brown is one of its most enterprising young business men, being proprietor of the T. B. Brown drug store.

A REMARKABLE OLD LADY.

Cushing has many old people, there being 16 over 80 years of age. Mrs. Elizabeth Stone of Pleasant Point being the oldest. She was Miss Elizabeth Seavey, born on Thompsons Island about 95 years ago; she married Capt. James Stone when very young, and moved to Pleasant Point, where she has since lived. Eleven children were born to them of whom six are still living. Mrs. Nancy Chadwick and Mrs. Elmina Robinson who live at Pleasant Point, Mrs. Susan Maxwell of St. George, the three daughters are John, Farnham and Thomas all of Pleasant Point, the latter living with his mother. Capt. Stone died only a year ago.
Mrs. Stone enjoys the best of health, being able to walk a mile and back without a cane.
She has 28 living grand children and 22 living great grandchildren. She is a remarkable old lady, retaining all her faculties, and before her eyes came to walk a half mile and back without a cane.
A few years ago she is unable to do any work. She may live to see her one hundred birthday. It is the wish of THE C. G. and her many friends.

SOCIAL SALAD.

The proposed sleighride to East Union was given up because of the unfavorable weather.
Mrs. J. F. Cooper entertained the T. C. E. Club Tuesday evening and a very pleasant time was enjoyed.
The Merry Met Club holds its fortnightly meeting with Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Davis, this Tuesday evening.
Some fifteen friends of Miss Fannie Tibbitts gave that young lady a surprise at her home in Middle street, Wednesday evening.
The High school athletic association had a dance at Linerock hall Wednesday evening, and enjoyed a good time despite the severe weather.

The Church Workers of St. Peter's gave a very nice supper Thursday evening. Mrs. L. L. Lohy, Mrs. Ernest Pillsbury and Mrs. E. J. Clifton were managers.
Mrs. F. Brewster very happily entertained the O. W. Club at her home, Park Street, Tuesday evening. What was on the program, and nice refreshments closed a very pleasant evening.
Misses Lizzie and Eva Gay attended the P. U. ball in Brunswick, Friday evening, being chaperoned by Mrs. Nathan F. Cobb. They were guests of S. O. Andros.
The Original Club were entertained Wednesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Simmons. Crokinole was the chief feature of the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Maynard S. Bird will entertain the club next Wednesday.

The Twilight Club met with Mrs. Annie Burkmar last evening. The 1885 club meets tomorrow evening with Mrs. Maynard S. Bird. The Philophaen Club met Saturday evening with Miss Jennie Allen. The club has commenced the study of choral music.
The entire force of Fuller & Cobb's dry good store surprised the senior member of the firm, W. O. Fuller, by calling at his home Monday evening to congratulate him upon his eightieth birthday. During the evening they presented Mr. Fuller with a pair of fur and gloves. Refreshments were served.
The Thursday Reading Club, which was organized three years ago, now meets with Mrs. E. D. Spear. The club this year, in addition to a reading of a book, has adopted a Collyer educational game. The members of the club are Mrs. Carrie Brainerd, Mrs. E. C. Davis, Mrs. E. E. Payson, Mrs. Charles A. Rose, Mrs. W. E. Mayo, Mrs. Frank W. Fuller and Mrs. E. D. Spear. Miss Brainerd is president. Mrs. O. L. Bartlett is a member of Boston, were originally members, and were prime movers in the organization of the club.

THE LEGISLATURE.

Since our last issue the matters that have come before the legislature which will more particularly interest our readers are touched upon below.
A resolve appropriating $500 in 1895 and $500 in 1896 to supply free libraries with books in town of not less than 1500 inhabitants.
Act by Collins of Edgemoor to regulate the practice of medicine and surgery. It is for medical registration and is similar to the bills introduced into former legislatures. The governor shall appoint a board of six physicians who shall constitute a board of registration. Not more than three members of the board shall be at one time members of any chartered State medical society. They shall organize and elect a secretary who shall give bonds of $1,000. All persons who have been in the practice of medicine for three years shall be entitled to registration on payment of a fee of $2. Any person not entitled to registration, on payment of a fee of $5, per day, will be granted a certificate. If a physician is convicted of the crime, the board may revoke his certificate. The compensation of the members of the board shall be $2 per day, with 5 cents per mile mileage. After Jan. 1st, 1896, it shall be lawful for any person to practice medicine without a certificate.

Petition of Joshua M. Sears and fifty others to enable the Bar Harbor, Me. Board of Health to protect its water supply from contamination. Among the bills signed by the Governor, Tuesday, were: Act relating to size of packages for smoked herring; the act amending the law relating to the duties of officers and agents in the enforcement of the laws for the prevention of cruelty to animals.
The committee on taxation was asked to report a bill extending the term of agricultural societies from taxation. It was claimed that the agricultural laws were run in the interest of the agricultural and mechanical interests of the State and not as money making institutions and it was an injustice to tax them. Thirty out of 44 societies were in debt. Secretary Twichell of the State Agricultural Society conducted the hearing in behalf of the measure and spoke in its favor, as did Secretary McKee of the State Board of Agriculture. Columbia Falls, Senator Wiggan and Representative Reynolds of Brooks. The committee voted eight to five in favor of the bill.
By Mr. Simpson of Hancock, an act to preserve the purity of public water supplies. The State Board of Health shall be authorized to make rules and regulations for the protection from contamination of the sources of public water supply and to regulate the erection or maintenance of dairies, manufactories, stables or other buildings, structures or enclosures, especially regulating drainage into any source of public water supply.
Resolve granting Mrs. Mary Ann Sleeper of Rockland a pension of $10 a month. She fell and fractured her hip, Jan. 15, 1892, and has required a nurse ever since.
A bill that a vehicle for transporting loads upon highways not less than three inches wide for one horse, mule or ox, and one inch additional for each horse or ox added to the team, shall be exempt from taxation, and that when the wheels of such vehicles cover a tread in width equal to their combined width of one, then the team used in hauling and vehicle shall be exempt from taxation, and when a town votes that no other width of tire shall be used, loaded teams having less width of tire shall not pass over the roads of the town.
Petition of Albert Fuller and thirty others of Winslow, asking for a law giving towns the right of choice to furnish school text books or allow the children or their parents to furnish them.
Remonstrance of the officers of the Canadian savings bank against the constitutional amendment, enlarging the debt limit.
The agricultural committee considered the sheep pasture bill and put it off until it is by making the amount of the fine which shall go to the informer one third instead of one fourth. If this bill should pass, manufacturers of oleo to be sold in this state will be prohibited from using the word "milk" in labeling and for one month, and if convicted, a fine of $100 for the first and $200 for subsequent offenses.
The lobster is delicious when properly cooked and served, but it is usually said when it is served to a legislative committee anxious to get to their supper. Then too, there is a great similarity between the arguments brought before the committee on the lobster bill and the lobster every year. There seems to be no end, variety of process in all this talk about protecting the lobster, which meanwhile goes on becoming scarcer, and higher in price, while year by year the number of the lobster fishery is being reduced. The petitioners indicate that the talk of the lobster is a mere device to get to their supper. The committee under the direction of Hon. Charles E. Little made a good presentation of their case. What will probably be the result of the argument is that a 10¢ tax on the lobster will be levied and that the lobster fishery will be protected. The committee will report on the lobster bill and the lobster every year. port and E. A. Holmes of Eastport, Mr. Wood of Bar Harbor and Mr. Heaton of Rockland were the attorneys for the petitioners for the law and the witnesses were Capt. Horn of Gouldboro, a smack fisherman, Mr. Cram of C. W. Marston, & Co. of Portland, Mr. Leath of North Haven, Senator Walls, Fred Penhollow of Winter Harbor, Representative Hooper of Castine and Frank Willard of Portland. If the little lobster are sold to the canners, of course they can't grow, as they would in three or four months if let alone, to a 10¢ inch lobster that would sell for five times as much. They told the committee that the canners only started the petition for close time so as to head off those in favor of the 10¢ inch lobster.
Governor Cleaves says that the last legislature appointed a commission to frame general laws to prevent the special legislation, which now costs the state thousands of dollars and greatly prolongs the legislative sessions. That committee has reported and the bills it recommends are before the judiciary committee. The Governor, therefore, does not believe that private and special legislation should be passed until the legislature has acted on those bills. Consequently he does not propose to sign such measures and at his suggestion the senate has called the bill incorporating the Dexter Water Company.
The house may adjourn Saturday until Tuesday, as many members have accepted invitations to go to Portland and Augusta Monday evening.

A bill has been introduced in the New York assembly prohibiting ladies from wearing high hats at theatres.
Women, in response to popular demand, are reducing the size of their theatre hats, but are fluffing out their hair instead.

Did You Ever Wear A Ten Dollar Suit? You will be astonished to see what a splendid Blue or Black Cheviot Suit We can sell you for $10.00

The goods from which these suits are made was manufactured by the Lincoln Mill of Lewiston and have their full guarantee as to wear and color.
They are made and Trimmed equal to any twelve dollar suit in the market.
It is a free wool wonder—a possibility born of a new order of things, and if you find it hard to believe, we shall not marvel.
However, bring along your friends and hear what they have to say about these ten dollar suits.

BUILDING BITS.

Work Progressing on the Court House—New School House Nearly Done.

Jones & Hicknell, the contractors who have the changes and alterations on the county court house in hand, will have their work nearly done by another Tuesday, the plumbers being in charge this week, and the March term of court can hold its session in greatly improved quarters.
The W. H. Glover Co. commence work this week, rebuilding and modernizing the Piper house, Rockport, for Fred E. Richards of Portland. Fred Morse and crew are now at work there. The company will commence work at once on the frame of the Fuller cottage, to be built at Castine.
G. F. Kaler & Co. are getting out the finishing work for the new Squirrel Island cottage. The carpenters are all through at the new school-house, the painters completing their work this week, and the room will be ready for inspection next week.
The Asa Crockett house, Highland street, is having steam heating apparatus put in, and is being modernized in other ways. It will be occupied by Frank L. Weeks and bride, who are to be married in April.

These diamonds will be worn by Uncle Daniel and company in the 2nd act of the drama, Uncle Daniel, to be given at the Farwell opera house next Thursday evening.

Augusta Democrat: The lecture delivered last Monday evening at the Methodist church, by the pastor, Rev. C. S. Cummings, drew a very large number of people. The lecture, "Old New England," was full of instruction, and abounded in wit and humor. Mr. Cummings was at his best, and the lecture was heartily enjoyed by the large gathering.

Wm. Spear, the armless quarryman, had a narrow escape from freezing in the bitter cold of Wednesday. He was riding up Limerick street with a friend when a man meeting them noticed that Mr. Spear seemed in a speechless condition. He was conveyed into a house and every means taken to resuscitate him, which after several hours hard work were successful.

The state encampment of the G. A. R. opens today at Bangor, and Edwin Libby Post will send a full delegation. We expect to see them returning home at the end of the week with a fanfare of bugles and banners flaunting, escorting Col. Carver as ornate commander. The signs now read for the gallant colonel's election, and Rockland hopes to be honored in this manner by the Grand Army of the State.

The current report that the Wight Philharmonic Society was to furnish music at the Sunday meetings in Farwell Opera House was erroneous. The Philharmonics at their Thursday evening rehearsal were invited to sing but as an important position in the membership had other Sunday engagements it was decided not to accept the invitation, but a number of the society volunteered to assist the public and sing at the end of the week, and this explanation is made so that people will understand why the Society was not present.

After treating us to a winter that for geniality deserved the kindest mention at the hands of the press, the elements at length conspired to hit us in our most vital spots. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday the wind blew a gale from the northwest, driving the little snow that fell earlier in the game flurry about and packing it down with great solidity. The mercury went to 14 degrees below zero and stayed there, and the suffering was intense. Travel was generally interrupted, and the electric between Rockland and Thomaston laid off for two days. Down Spruce Head way they say ice made on the shores as not before in the past 20 years. It has been the severest week of the winter and coal in the bin melted like the fabric of a morning dream. Chapter II might be added to the above paragraph, made out of a terrific north-easterly that came off from the islands Thursday night and raged bitterly into Friday, blocking the roads badly. It has been a week quite given over to the weather.

R. G. Robinson and E. B. Ingraham have gone to Jefferson, Maine.

J. E. Moore and Capt. W. M. Munroe have received official notice of their appointments. Eddie Tibbitts is attending college after which he will enter the employ of W. T. Prescott.

The interior of Dunn & Carr's store will look decidedly better when the improvements now underway are completed.

A meeting of the trustees of the Public Library will be held in the library rooms, Friday evening, at 7:30.

The Postal Union Telegraph Co. have a neat little office in the Thorndike, Bert Perse, an efficient operator, is in charge.

A recent issue of The Standard contained a portrait of Maxine Elliot (Jessie McIlhenny) styling her the "New York stage beauty."

George Batty has accepted a position as engineer on the steamer Lizzie running between Rockland and Matineus.

The Quebec excursion committee from this section will leave for Portland Thursday morning, in a special car provided for them.

Very few kins are alive. The 21 kins operated by F. Cobb & Co. are all out, and about a dozen in the entire city are alive.

The usual circle will be held Wednesday evening in the Church of Immanuel next Thursday. The housekeepers are Mrs. Rebecca Packard and Mrs. Ibra Holbrook.

There is early prospect of a lulliard tournament at the Central club, where an unusual interest in this skillful game has recently developed. Among the star players are J. E. Doherty, W. T. Cobb, George Nash and Frank C. Norton.

Wednesday evening's circle at the Universalist church was enjoyed as usual, though the severe weather reduced the size of the company somewhat. The housekeepers were Mrs. James Fernald, Mrs. D. E. Carleton and Mrs. H. P. C. Wright.

The Sunday paper train, this side of Nobeleson camptown, ran over a fox. He took the track in front of the locomotive, and dived his tail by way of a challenge, as he sought along the track. Engineer Nash pulled open the throttle, and one of the section hands now has a fox brush.

About a dozen friends of Miss Jessie E. Robbins "surprised" that young lady Wednesday evening at her home on Willow street. The young ladies were dressed in ghost costume, and the young men competed for a prize in guessing their identity. At 10:30 a delicious lunch was enjoyed.

Since writing the editorial referring to Tax Collector Farwell, which appears elsewhere under "City Chat," Mr. Farwell has finished collecting his 1893 commitment, and turned over the last collection, $16 and a few cents, over to city Treasurer Jones. Capt. Farwell's collection of this tax, through these hard times, and the closing up of his account to a cent is something unparalleled in the history of tax collecting.

Mortimer C. A. Linnell of the electric road by his presence of mind saved the life of Richard Perry, Saturday. Mr. Perry, who is somewhat deaf, was driving down the railroad track. Mr. Linnell rang the alarm, and then tried to stop the car by reversing the power, but the track was so slippery that the car kept on its course. Mr. Linnell then at a great risk to himself leaped over the car, grasped Mr. Perry under the arms and held him up out of danger's way. Mr. Linnell has both presence of mind and pluck.

The Public Library has now some 800 books. Saturday last was the largest yet, and the rooms were crowded. Afternoon and evening. In the evening a line was formed and arrivals took their place in line as they came in, and so all got books in their turn. A rail is being done over the of the librarian's desk, and applicants for books will be obliged to await their turn. Donations of books are being received daily.

Ivan F. Baer, chemist of the Red Seal Co., was born in Russia, where his boyhood was passed. It is a custom in that severe country, when a person's name is to be put up in the for the past-year, nothing such disaster, to catch up a handful of snow and rub the frosty face vigorously. It is a matter of etiquette which the climate of the country has established. In the intense cold of Wednesday morning Mr. Baer, hastening along Main street, met a congealed stranger, his face red with cold. The quick eye of the chemist caught sight of the suspicious little spot at the end of the stranger's nose. "ardon me," he said, leaving the man to, "but your nose is freezing," and grasping a handful of snow he gave the startled stranger vigorous treatment. A Russian. When the stranger understood the ceremony he was profuse in his thanks and went off, holding his saved nose lovingly in his mittens.

A repetition of the noted line fire of 1891 was narrowly averted Friday forenoon, when a combination of the highest ice known here for many years, and a heavy easterly wind got in effective work on the wharves and line sheds along the harbor front. Shortly after 8 o'clock a fire broke out at the north end was run in summing the department to fight fire in the shed of A. J. Bird & Co. A crew of idle workmen was also pressed into the service and that of the line which appeared to be most badly damaged was soon being thrown into the bay. That which was steaming hot little was removed to a point of safety beyond the water's reach. A member of the firm yesterday at noon estimated 700 cases damaged including those which were a total loss. Fortunately of the 10,000 cases which the firm had in its sheds a few weeks previously only about 1700 were on hand. Otherwise the loss must have been very heavy. Farland, Spear & Co. had about 400 barrels damaged and F. C. & A. C. Gay nearly that number. The Cubans sheds at the Bow Kilns were reported safe and also the Crockett kilns on Crockett's Point but neither firm suffered damage. In all three, alarms were rung in to which the firemen manfully responded, dragging the heavy hose carts through the drifts on runners.

ROCKLAND HIGHLANDS.

Jed Hart of Appleton was in the city last week—Charles Willington of Appleton visited at Fred Irish's a few days recently.

Messrs. F. O. Irish and M. M. Daggett, who have been in the country on a fishing expedition, have returned home with 35 pounds of fine pickerel.—C. A. Weymouth, wife and son, who visited relatives in Appleton last week, have returned home.—Hiram Tolman of the Highlands purchased a fine horse of C. I. Hurrows from the city last week and sold in Thomaston last week.—Quite a number of teamsters from the country were stabled at this place in the blizzard of last week. Among them were: Messrs. J. L. Clark, F. E. Pease, A. J. Siskel-Smith, Elmer Messer, Elie Fish and Harlan McCurdy.—Wednesday last it was 18 and 20 degrees below zero at the Highlands.—Alon Butler and sister Felicia of Appleton were in the city Monday last.

Amusements and Announcements.

"Hands Across the Sea."

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union will meet the play afternoon at 2:30 in Y. M. C. A. parlors.

Hamilton Lodge of Good Templars will give an entertainment at the hall at street Rock, Wednesday evening, Feb. 14. Admission ten cents.

There will be a Valentine Ball in Knox Hall, South Thomaston, next Thursday evening under the same good management that has conducted the series of dances there. A large party will go from this city.

Marion Manola and Jack Mason in "Friend Fritz" delighted a large audience in Farwell Opera House last evening. A sweeter prettier play, more delightful, wholesome entertainment was never given here.

The musical to be given at the home of Mrs. A. D. Bird, Camden street, this evening promises to be a very pleasing event. The participants on the program are Mrs. Aila F. Mills, Mrs. Geo. W. Smith, Mrs. Adeline Tibbitts, Walter M. Tapley, Mrs. Ada Keene, Miss Carrie Blund, Miss Hannah Keene, Miss Edith Simonton, Miss Mary Thorndike, Miss Havenor violinist, W. F. Tibbitts, futeist. A small admission fee will be charged and the proceeds contributed toward the fund for supplying a new furnace at St. Peter's church.

"Hands Across the Sea," as presented on the stage, is apparently a new production, for it has been given almost completely a new scenic outfit of the most elaborate nature. As scene after scene is revealed to the great audience in attendance, there is round after round of applause for the work of the scenic artists and the clever mechanical work of the stage. There have been marine spectacles on the local stage, but nothing in realism of this sort has been given almost completely a new scenic outfit of the most elaborate nature.

The play from first to last is an immense success, and cannot fail to draw crowded houses throughout the engagement. On Saturday at Farwell Opera House. Tickets now on sale.

All Knox county firemen and their friends are requested to be on the alert next Thursday evening in order to respond to the still alarm for the benefit of the James F. Sears House Co. in Farwell opera house. The gallant members of this company are to hold their second annual levee and ball on that night, and if you appreciate the efforts of our hardy firemen, as you doubtless did when they were obliged to turn out in yesterday's blizzard, you will show your appreciation in a substantial manner by seeing that you help make a full house. The Sears House cover the most important of the city's territory and are of especial value to the department from the fact that they are the only one company responding to all alarms. The Sears have been many weeks planning how to outdo their friendly rivals, and after a glance over their program, the townsmen feels warranted in guaranteeing satisfaction to all who attend. The entertainment will open with the three-act comedy drama, "Uncle Daniel," presented by the Rockland Comedy Co., the cast of characters of which has already appeared in this paper. Some excellent specialties will be introduced to while away the time between acts, an especial feature being the jig and reel steps in the "Two Minstrels." There is considerable speculation as to the identity of the "minstrels" but the only way of finding out is to witness their novel performance. The drama will be followed by dancing under the direction of Chief Engineer Bird and with music by Meserve's Quintet. The grand illuminated street parade forms on Spring street, starting at 7 o'clock.

Dick O'Brien and Donovan had their long advertised glove contest in Lewiston, Thursday, and the victory was awarded the Lewiston lad. A Rockland man who attended the match, and an expert in such events, says that tho' Donovan was worsted, he never saw him put up so gamey a contest. He fought the fight and gave it a good punishment in a manner that won even the admiration of O'Brien's Lewiston friends. Philip Jenson of this city seconded Donovan. O'Brien, after his bout with Donovan, tried to thrash Jenson, but was murdred. Charles Cheltra of Bath was referee.

STORM WITHOUT—GAYETY WITHIN.

The storm of last Friday will pass into history as one of the severest ever experienced in the history of the country, but intense cold, high snow drifts with accompanying unpleasant features did not prevent a number of persons from giving their friend Harry Messer a surprise party in the evening. The house interior was a pleasant contrast to the outside world. The rooms were decorated with beautiful flowers from the greenery, pure Easter lilies—beautiful the cluster, the dining room was richly scented with a profusion of blushing roses while large bouquets of carnations filled the library. After refreshments the dining room was cleared for dancing. The company with considerable forethought brought with them Gale's orchestra and the wild howling of the gale outside was drowned by the sweet strains of the orchestra within. It was a pleasant occasion and the party did not break up until a late hour. Those present were Dr. and Mrs. Ayers, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Jones, Dr. and Mrs. Hanson, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Norcross, Mr. Mayo Simonton, Misses Grace Ayers, Mabel Haynes, Anna Ingraham, Alfred Black, Bert McLouin, Daniel Munson and Arthur Duncan.
